

What's Your "Comfort Place" in Madison?

The Arboretum

"Any time I feel overwhelmed or stressed, I make my way to the arboretum. The nature is absolutely beautiful and it always makes me feel like I'm back at home." - Sophie K., Senior at UW- Madison

Michelangelos Coffee House

"I find so much comfort when I go to Michelangelos. It's closer to the capitol, and far from central campus so I feel like it's an escape from my everyday student life." -Bela O., Senior at UW- Madison

The Nick

"It sounds cheesy, but I feel comfort when I go to the Nick to workout. It's my time in the day to tune out and just focus on myself." - Molly W., Junior at UW- Madison

Memorial Union

"Ever since freshman year, I've found comfort in Memorial Union. Even in the dead of winter when there's no outside seating, I just love it there." - Max N., Junior at UW- Madison

Fairtrade Coffee House

"I find comfort in Fairtrade because it's the first coffee shop I found near campus. I've just continued to go back and I've grown to love it there." - Nia D., senior at UW- Madison
